

Unique entertainer's haven with roof terrace

WOOLLAHRA 17 Wallis Street

Location

This landmark Victorian terrace is positioned on a commanding corner block overlooking Centennial Park with entry from Moncur Street. Located on the fringe of Queen Street village, 3.5km east of the CBD, this unique village residence is foot steps to abundance of retail options.

The Residence

Built in the late 1800s, the home has been expertly redesigned to create a unique entertainer's haven with three levels of luxury living wrapped in private terraces and traditional balconies. Crowned with a roof terrace and dazzling views to the city skyline, this stylish home features a perfect north to rear aspect and a flexible layout showcasing three large bedrooms with built-ins and balconies, two marble spa bathrooms and a master with study and sunny roof deck. The lower level is devoted to living and entertaining with a dining room and an elegant fireplace, marble floors, ornate 3.5m ceilings, a sunken lounge with exposed sandstone walls and entertainer's kitchen opening to a flagstone courtyard with auto retractable roof.

The Property

Featuring a prestigious village setting with internal access to a double lock-up garage, this impressive home is a perfect executive address, a stone's throw to the sprawling grounds of Centennial Park and moments to Oxford Street's cosmopolitan shopping strip, Queen Street Boutiques and Westfield
